Photography policy

The Pleiades Partnership recognises the need to ensure the welfare and safety of all children. In accordance with our child protection policy we will not permit photographs, video or other images of children and young people to be taken without the consent of the parents/carers and children.

Children will not be named, nor personal information disclosed, in photographs published on our website or included in our marketing literature.

A parental permission form giving consent for the child to appear on our website or in our marketing literature, will be obtained prior to a publication.

Only images of children in suitable dress will be used to reduce the risk of inappropriate use.

Written expectations, making clear The Pleiades Partnerships' expectations in relation to child protection, will be issued to professional photographers or the press who are invited to an event.

Photographers will not have unsupervised access to children.

Photography sessions outside the event or at a child's home will not be allowed.

Consent form for the use of photographs and video.

The Pleiades Partnership recognises the need to ensure the welfare and safety of all children. In accordance with our child protection policy we will not permit photographs, video or other images of children and young people to be taken without the consent of the parents/carers and children.

The Pleiades Partnership will follow the Pleiades Photography Policy for the use of photographs a copy of which is available from Grant Woolger.

The Pleiades Partnership will take all steps to ensure these images are used solely for the purposes they are intended. If you become aware that these images are being used inappropriately you should inform Grant Woolger (07790 046335) immediately.
